WORKPLACE SKILLS AND LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Employee development and performance is critical for Hawaii businesses to compete in a global economy. Building foundational skills through professional development is an investment for employers that will pay dividends through enhanced productivity, efficiency, and customer relations.

Our short-term training covers these critical areas: communication, writing, teamwork and conflict resolution, project management, and leadership.

We also customize courses, curriculum, and schedules to meet your staff and industry needs. You will help determine the standards of training for your employees.
