

Indian Valley Fire & Rescue Yearly Training Schedule

This is a sample of the target training and drill schedule used by Indian Valley Fire & Rescue. Winter months are dedicated to indoor training using video trainings and hands-on activities. Summer months are dedicated to outdoor hands-on training/drills aimed at refreshing and learning essential skills and completing needed maintenance tasks. This is a target and is subject to change based on volunteer availability and other variables.

January-Basic Skills / Hoses	Fire hose and nozzles Fire streams Large diameter hoses Sprinkler systems Exposure protection Ventilation and Fire behavior Salvage covers and mop-up
February-CPR & First Aid	CPR/AED/BBP training First Aid
March-Basic Skills	Forcible entry Haz Mat Turnout use and review Radio use and protocol/pagers
April-Basic Skills	Truck operation and safety procedures Ladder use and safety procedures Fire extinguisher review and use Electrical fires
May-Pump Operation (In Town)	Basic pump operation Hose reel operation and use Hydrant use and protocol Soft suction and in-town procedures Hose lay and relay procedures Supply line load and reload Live line deployment and reload

June-Pump Operation (Wildland)	Drafting and hard suction use Water canon setup and use Float a pump use.
July-Rescue Procedures (MVA)	Hurst tool use Seat belts and window breaking Air bag awareness Cribbing and stabilization Use of air packs
August-Rescue Procedures	Use of ropes and knots Rappelling and over the edge rescue
September – Wildland Fires	Turnout gear review and fitting Use of hand tools (Axe, McLeod, Spade) Gansner Pack use and repacking
October- Winter preparedness	Light plant testing and training Testing and training for all other gas powered tools Fuel replacement for gas tools Review of cold weather procedures
November-SCBA	Testing and battery swap for SCBA's Training on use of SCBA equipment Dark room drill
December-First Responder/Rescue	Review of procedures with ambulance staff Basic rescue procedures Confined space rescue & trench rescue