Daily Prayer Prompts

Sometimes the hardest part of praying is knowing where to begin. So to assist you, as you are working through your daily Let Your Light Shine Devotional, you will find a section to incorporate prayer into your study time. It includes a prayer from each author as well as space to write out your own prayer.

I encourage you to include the day's scripture into your prayer, seeking God's guidance about 1) what God is wanting to teach you from the scripture and 2) how you can incorporate the learning into your life. Secondly, use the daily prayer prompts provided below to pray over others in your life.

Also included on the following pages are blank prayer journaling pages. Use these for additional space to write our your prayers. Feel free to make additional copies of those blank pages for your prayer time. Tuck them into your devotional, Bible, journal or notebook.

How to Use Your Prayer Journal

Scripture: Ask God to reveal a scripture to pray or select one from your Bible Reading. Write it out here.

Praise: This section of prayer time is all about God.

Begin your prayer time by praising God for who He is. Pray scripture back to Him which is giving Him praise and honor—Psalm is a good source for these scriptures. Acknowledge the ways you have seen God working in your life or in the lives of others.

For Others: This next section of prayer time is devoted to others.

Keep a list of names and their needs, update God in your prayer time. Petition God on behalf of your friends and family just as if you were talking to a friend for them. This type of prayer is called intercessory prayer—you are interceding with God on their behalf.

---

For Me: This time with God, talk to Him about your personal needs.

Physical, spiritual, emotional, anything. Open up, be honest, He knows your heart anyway. Talk to Him about your day, your relationships, your challenges, your hopes, your everything.

Prayer isn't about withdrawing from God like an ATM, but rather building a relationship.

Thanksgiving: Lastly, close out your prayer time with thanksgiving.

Everything is from God, so acknowledge Him for all He has provided. Large and small, physical and spiritual, everything comes from Him.
