

The Directors and committee of yH Leinster (trading as young Horizons) has resolved to adopt the Guidelines for Charitable Organisations Fundraising from the Public and confirms that yH Leinster is committed to complying with the Statement and will endeavour to:

Adhere to the core principles of respect, honesty and openness by:

- Respecting the rights, dignity and privacy of supporters, clients and beneficiaries.
- Answering reasonable questions about fundraising activity and fundraising costs honestly.
- Making information about our purpose, activities, and governance available to the public.

Ensure high standards of fundraising practice by:

- Ensuring fundraisers are committed to the highest standards of good practice by providing information and training on the Guidelines for Charitable Organisations Fundraising from the Public.
- Ensuring that fundraising activities are respectful, honest, open and legal and that images and messages are chosen and used in accordance with the Guidelines

Be Financially accountable by:

- Publishing an annual report and statement of annual accounts, which includes a statement on compliance with the Guidelines for Charitable Organisations Fundraising from the Public.
- Making sure that there are appropriate internal financial and management controls in place.
- Making sure that all donations are recorded and that records comply with data protection legislation.

Ensure that the Board and senior management take responsibility for implementing and adhering to the Guidelines for Charitable Organisations Fundraising from the Public by:

- Identifying any risks that may arise and ensuring appropriate mechanisms are in place given the size and complexity of the organisation to manage and deal with those risks.
