AGREEMENT:

- A message from the Board of Directors of the San Juan Island Chamber of Commerce: "The San Juan Island Chamber of Commerce is excited for and proud of our annual Fourth of July parade. It is the largest and most well attended event in our community. We believe that this event is a time to celebrate all that is good in our amazing country and is not an appropriate venue for negative campaigning. We would like for all involved in our parade to be positive examples of what this small town, family Independence Day celebration stands for. Political groups are welcome to represent the positive values they stand for rather than attacking opposing groups with whom they may disagree."
- Applicants agree to not throw anything from vehicles. You may hand out items within ten feet of the curb.
- The San Juan Island Chamber of Commerce reserves the right to record and publish all performances on the 2017 4th of July Parade. This is for Chamber of Commerce advertising and promotion only, and may include vision, sound, music, dance, dialogue, etc. Any such recording will ONLY be used to promote the parade itself, your act, or for news and publicity items. Unless there is a proper legal written agreement, no recording will ever be sold for profit. There is no offer or promise to record, however we do ask our photographers and videographers to capture the essence and spirit of the festival.
