Susan Bougetz , Children’s Librarian III,
Los Angeles Public Library

Workshops - Featuring practical ideas you can use on Monday!

- Making Books with Kids
- Head, Heart, Hands & Feet: Inspiring Writing Using Picture Book Biographies
- Notice & Note: Nonfiction Picture Books
- Dynamic Math & Science Read-Alouds
- Brain Research and Books
- Art & Books: A Kid-Friendly Project
- Picture Books as Springboards to Writing!
- Creating (and Funding) a Classroom Library
- Eye Candy: Hooking Readers with Book Displays in Your Classroom or Library
- . . .and more!

Dream of turning your class into a roomful of enthusiastic readers? Picture books are a perfect tool for this!

At this Literature Extravaganza, you’ll . . .

- dive into the newest, best picture books in children’s literature today;
- participate in workshops created to hook readers of all ages and enrich their understanding of math, science, and social studies;
- discover ways to encourage kids to write and illustrate their own books; and
- end the day feeling invigorated and full of ideas to use right away in your classroom.

What else is in store for you on November 4th?
