Early Registration Rates until May 19

Since May 18 is on Sunday, early registration rates will be in effect through May 19 for COPE's Midwest Regional Conference, June 18-20, 2014 in Indianapolis.

Professor at Crossroads Bible College, Chaplain for the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police and Sheriff's Departments, CERT Member (Community Emergency Response Team, US Department of Homeland Security), Kairos Prison Ministry Volunteer, and Member of the FBI Citizen Academy, Gerson Cardona understands the meaning of the phrase "the God of Second Chances". Watch this video and learn more about Gerson and plan to attend his workshop, Friday, June 19.

Read other speaker bios and click here to register for the conference. A non-refundable $25.00 deposit will hold your place and help with planning. You may pay the balance at the door.

A note about the optional post-conference event on Saturday, June 21, to the Indianapolis Reentry and Education Facility which has a remarkable program for reunification of families. You will not want to miss this, BUT, in order to participate we must have your clearance information by June 10.

Don't procrastinate; register today. And pass this information along to your friends and colleagues in prison ministry. Remember, if you live in the area and can't attend the entire conference, the evening sessions are free and open to the public. So invite your church friends to come and be inspired and learn a bit about ministry to prisoners, ex-prisoners and their families.
