The Count down is On

With only one week until COPE's Midwest Regional Conference, June 18-20, 2014 in Indianapolis, it's time to stop procrastinating and register NOW.

Meet John Sullivan, founder of Gone Fishing Ministries. John has ministered in more than 300 prisons in over 40 states and as well as in many international prisons.

A member of COPE's Board of Directors, John understands prison ministry from personal experience. First arrested at age 11 and branded an incorrigible criminal by 16, John, at 33 years old, was a hopeless alcoholic and had been arrested more than 30 times.

A non-refundable $25.00 deposit will hold your place and help with planning. You may pay the balance at the door. And pass this information along to your friends and colleagues in prison ministry.

Remember, if you live in the area and can't attend the entire conference, the evening sessions are free and open to the public. So invite your church friends to come and be inspired and learn a bit about ministry to prisoners, ex-prisoners and their families.

Register online or print and fax the registration form to the COPE office. Check out the conference brochure for additional details. Questions? Contact the COPE office at 682-292-8009 or email office@copeconnections.org.

Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference

Our last 2014 Regional Conference will be in Greensboro, North Carolina, September 24-26. The brochure goes in the mail today (postal mail, that is) but you can see it now by clicking on the picture at the left.

For more details, check out our website. You can also register online.

Please forward this email to those would be interested in COPE, our members, conferences, and resources. COPE needs YOU to help us spread the word.
