WILL YOU COMMIT TO PRAY?
This is the 15th Anniversary of the 9/11 wake-up call for our nation.
Cry Out America is a grassroots prayer gathering on September 11th.
Each year, we pause in response to this wake-up call and gather in united prayer for our nation.
Thousands of people gather across cultural, denominational, and racial lines for one purpose, to ask God to AWAKEN OUR NATION!
What will happen if your one hour of prayer is synergized with all of God’s people on 9/11?
We believe He will hear from heaven once again.

IN THEATERS OCTOBER 21, 2016
Pure Flix presents I'M NOT ASHAMED, the inspiring true story of Rachel Joy Scott, the first girl to be killed at Columbine High School. Based on her writings and journals, it is the story of her faith journey.
“I’ve always been drawn to hands. I think it’s because it’s the way we touch people,” she wrote in her journal. “If one person could go out of their way to show compassion, it could start a chain reaction.”
After praying, “Father, use my life to touch the world and let your light shine through me,” Rachel's renewed commitment to Jesus played out compassionately and powerfully at her high school … and around the world.
