

NEW ASPECTS OF DENTISTRY – 2019

May 17, 2019 (Friday)

Myrtle Beach, South Carolina

North Carolina Dental Society

Gordon J. Christensen DDS MSD PhD

Every presentation Gordon provides is unique. Each presentation is customized during the meeting itself. Much of what he discusses is extemporaneously provided, and more information is provided on www.pccdental.com. For additional information on any of the following programs, call the numbers at the bottom of this page.

Due to the many questions that come from audiences not planned in the program, copies of slides are not provided. We encourage you to TAKE NOTES during the seminar. After the presentation, your notes will help you navigate our websites to locate additional information on any subject discussed today. Toward the bottom of the home pages you will find some Free Complimentary Information and some of Dr. Christensen's most requested lecture slides.
