

Jessie Lubow

Jessie Lubow is a freelance writer and a fitness instructor at the Bar Method of Bernardsville. She contributes regularly to Lumen Magazine, the alumni publication for Newark Academy in Livingston, NJ, and has developed marketing materials for the school as well. For much of her career Jessie worked in secondary school admissions and financial aid, first at Kent Place School in Summit, NJ and then at Newark Academy. She has served on the Executive Committee of the Peck School Parents' Association, and as a trustee for the Westmont Montessori School in Mendham, NJ. Jessie is a volunteer alumni interviewer for Dartmouth College, from which she graduated, an active volunteer at Kent Place, and a member of the Harding Township Environmental Commission.