

Denise Lanza

Denise Lanza is Assistant Deputy Director, Morris County Park Commission and Executive Director of The Alliance for Morris County Parks, a New Jersey nonprofit supporting programs and facilities of the Morris County Park Commission. She is involved with numerous local not-for-profits and community organizations, including the Morris County Human Relations Commission, the Morris Area Wellness Partnership and the North jersey Health Collaborative. Other organizations she has worked with in the past have included the Coalition for a Healthy New Jersey and the Morris County Tourism Bureau. Denise graduated from Montclair State University with a BS in Recreation and Leisure Studies and holds an MAS (Administrative Science) from Fairleigh Dickinson University. She is an adjunct professor at Kean University teaching "Fundraising in Parks and Recreation."