

Yvette Long

Yvette Long is President of ASPIRE, a Teen/Parent Development Consulting Firm, and Executive Director of Platinum Minds, a not-for-profit organization. Her focus is helping young men acquire an appreciation of the importance of high academic achievement, make better decisions and the development of leadership skills, self-confidence and an entrepreneur spirit. Yvette stresses the importance of education as a means to a better life, with a firm understanding and appreciation of the challenges young men face in society. Yvette is involved in many community organizations, including the Morristown Unity Methodist Church the Morris County Human Relations Commission, the NAACP of Morris County, the Morris County Urban League and the Market Street Mission, Yvette attended Linfield College, Thomas Edison College and Montclair State University and hold a BA in Social Science and is a Certified Teacher and Guidance Counselor and a Certified teacher of Psychology.