

Local Resources for Gardeners

NC Cooperative Extension, Lawn and Garden pages - excellent garden information based on the latest research
<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/LawnGarden/>

Wake County Cooperative Extension Horticulture and Gardening page and links
<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/wake/agriculturehorticulture/horticulture/index.html>

Wake County Master Gardeners

(919) 250-1084

Master Gardener Volunteers are available to answer homeowner's questions concerning all types of gardening and landscaping, pest and disease problems, house plants, soil testing, and other topics.

Gardeners of Wake County - a non-profit organization dedicated to providing gardening education and horticultural information to their members and the gardening public.

<http://www.rtpnet.org/gardener/>

J.C. Raulston Arboretum - A nationally acclaimed garden with one of the largest and most diverse collections of landscape plants adapted for landscape use in the Southeast. The arboretum also offers lectures, tours through the plants, travel tours, plant sales, and other benefits to its members. Visiting JCRA is free.

<http://www.ncsu.edu/jcraulstonarboretum/>

4415 Beryl Road in Raleigh, NC. (919) 515-3132.

The Sarah P. Duke Gardens - another wonderful local public garden. This 55 acre garden has many offerings from concerts to classes for adults and children, field trips, weekend workshops, day camp, drop-in programs for children and free walks with Gardens curators and horticulturists.

<http://www.hr.duke.edu/dukegardens/dukegardens.html>

426 Anderson Street Box 90341

Duke University

Durham, NC 27708-0341

919-684-3698

NC Botanical Garden (The University of NC at Chapel Hill) - A lovely local public garden with an emphasis on conservation. It offers classes, workshops, horticultural therapy, lectures, art exhibits, summer camp, and more.

<http://www.ncbg.unc.edu/>

CB 3375, Totten Center

Chapel Hill, North Carolina 27599-3375

Phone 919-962-0522

The Plant Disease & Insect Clinic at NC State University

<http://www.ces.ncsu.edu/depts/ent/clinic/>

NCSU Box 7211

1104 Williams Hall, NCSU, Raleigh, 27695, 515-3825

Wake Technical Community College Adult Continuing Education Program - Residential Landscaping class

<http://www.wake.tec.nc.us/conted/schedules/hor.html>

Continuing Education Registration, Wake Technical

Community College, 9101 Fayetteville Road, Raleigh, NC 27603-5696

(919) 662-3500 (credit classes) (919) 662-3252 (non-credit classes)

Triangle Gardener Magazine - available at many Triangle shopping locations, libraries, and more including Homewood.