

A native of Indianapolis, Indiana, David Mattingly graduated from Indiana University where he received a bachelor's of science in 1968 from the Kelly School of Business. He holds a juris doctrine of Michigan University School of law where he graduated in 1970. David joined Ice Miller LLP in 1971 where he practiced until his withdrawal from the partnership in December of 2016, but continues his practice in association with the firm. David's primary practice concentration is in general litigation with an emphasis on business and complex litigation. Throughout his professional career David has represented Indianapolis Motor Speedway Corporation, INDYCAR, and a variety of other parties involved in motorsports.

Awards and recognition include:

- Best Lawyers in America, Commercial Litigation, Mergers and Acquisitions Litigation, and Tax Litigation and Controversy, 2007-2017;
- Best Lawyers 2014 "Lawyer of the Year" in Tax Litigation and Controversy in Indianapolis;
- Lawyer of the Year, IDLA 1996;
- Indiana Super Lawyers, General Litigation, 2004-2016; and
- Elected a managing partner of Ice Miller LLP in 2006
- Member of American College of Trial Lawyers since 1992.