

Dennis E. Mullen is the Deputy General Counsel for the Indiana Gaming Commission, the state agency tasked with licensing and regulating riverboat gambling in Indiana and ensuring compliance with applicable statutes, rules, and regulations in a manner that promotes the integrity of gaming, and the best interest of the State of Indiana and its citizens.

Dennis was born and raised in Indianapolis, IN, and graduated from DePauw University with a degree in Political Science in 2008. He received his J.D. from the Robert McKinney School of Law: Indiana University in 2011. Prior to joining the Indiana Gaming Commission, Dennis worked for the Office of the Indiana Attorney General, primarily in the Civil Litigation Section, where he provided legal representation on behalf of the State of Indiana, its agencies, officials and employees in Indiana state and federal courts. Dennis is active in the Indianapolis Bar Association and in 2016 graduated from the IndyBar Leader Series.
