Terms:

The value of the items below that you have generously donated is tax-deductible, based on fair market value of the property at the time the contribution is made. Used items must be valued at garage sale prices; new items must be valued at cost and not sale value. Contributions of household goods or clothing must be in good condition in order to take a deduction and requires a qualified appraisal if valued over $500. Contributions of art valued $5,000 or more require a qualified appraisal by a reputable source. The IRS requires the donor to determine the value of the donation. So please help us by assigning an estimated value to your donation. It also helps us with our financial records. This form will serve as your receipt for the contribution(s) listed below. Donor represents that the item(s) donated are in good condition to the best of their knowledge. For more information regarding donation valuation, visit the IRS website at: <http://www.irs.gov/publications/p561/index.html>
