Program Funding Information

---

The following resources are available for individuals and families to apply for funds for services and programs. Please follow the instructions provided for each resource. Your camper's case worker or teacher may be able to help you with some information. For questions on the Life TREX program, please email lifetrex@thefowlercenter.org.

ACT Today!

<http://www.act-today.org/act-today-grant-program.php>

Offers quarterly grants for families seeking therapeutic treatments for children with Autism Spectrum Disorders.

American Autism Association

<http://www.myautism.org/>

Works with families to connect them with funding opportunities to send their children to camps and after-school programs. The organization's goal is to enable children to live as independently as possible.

The Arc Michigan

<http://www.arcmi.org/>

The Arc is a national organization that has a state chapter as well as local chapters that may be able to offer information on funding that your camper may qualify for.

Family Hope Foundation

<http://www.familyhopefoundation.org/programs/scholarships/guidelines-application>

Your camper may be eligible for up to $1,000 in funding for the Life TREX program by applying to the Family Hope Foundation's scholarship program for treatments not covered by insurance. They award funding twice yearly.

Friends of Jacob Foundation

<http://www.friendsofjacob.org/grants/>

Friends of Jacob Foundation provides funding to children diagnosed with an Autism Spectrum Disorder under the age of 18. The application is available on the website.

MyGOAL, Inc.

<http://mygoalautism.org/freeresources.php#grants>

MyGOAL awards a number of grants for ASD treatments yearly, with new grant information available in December/January of each year.
